3. Looking at the Precept 2023-24

Given that the Covid grant for the toilets (£1888) will not be given in 23-24, the precept could be raised by £2K to cover the shortfall, at cost of .80p per household per week.

It was agreed that given the situation with Cefn Llan, and the proposed s106 monies arriving when the first house is completed, keeping £2K in the reserves was of no advantage. This money could be used to off-set the lack of grant for the toilets.

This would mean that the precept could remain the same.

4. Agreement of Advice to the Council

The above points were re-iterated and it was unanimously agreed to put them to the full council for discussion.

The Chair and Clerk thanked everyone for their input.

Meeting finished at 11.30am.
